

Now Hiring

Together Through Care

Freeman Health System

Joplin, Missouri

Scan for more information

Radiology – Women’s Imager Opportunity

- Board eligible or board certified breast imaging radiologist
- Provide clinical and regulatory oversight of breast imaging services across health system
- Serve as the Lead Interpreting Physician (LIP) responsible for compliance with all MQSA requirements, including clinical image quality, quality assurance (QA), quality control (QC), and regulatory documentation.
- Ensure ongoing compliance with ACR accreditation standards, FDA MQSA regulations, and internal quality and safety protocols.
- Oversee clinical image quality and provide feedback to radiologists and technologists, ensuring adherence to established standards and corrective action processes.
- Direct the medical outcomes audit program, including monitoring performance metrics such as recall rates, cancer detection rates, and positive predictive value.
- Interpret breast imaging studies, including screening and diagnostic mammography, breast ultrasound, and breast MRI.
- Perform image-guided breast procedures, including biopsies and localizations, as clinically required.
- Collaborate with multidisciplinary teams including surgery, oncology, and pathology
- Package includes CME allowance, relocation allowance paid malpractice, tail coverage, and more
- Hospital employed opportunity with competitive compensation, day one benefits, with start bonus and fellowship stipend

